04 - I Will Study

Text: Psalms 119:129-136; Various

Some folks find Bible reading and study of little value because they feel the Bible is hard to read and understand. When we get little or nothing out of Bible reading we do one of two things, either we stop reading altogether or worse, we start going through the motions.

But when we discover the living and active Word of God working in our lives we begin to hunger and thirst and cannot put it down. A love for God's word develops out of our relationship with him. God's word is something to be read and studied to give power and purpose to our lives. Here are 3 steps to finding value in studying God's word.

- Step 1: _____ and _____ your Bible Study time with _____ (Ps 119:130; Acts 8:26-40; Is 53:7-8). Ask God to "unfold" the word in order to give light and understanding to you. Pray after the study that God will put what you read into action.
- Step 2: _____ with _____ (Ps 119:131; 2 Tm 2:15). When you find meaning in purpose in the word it makes us long to get into it. METHOD:
 Skim _____
 Dig _____
 Reflect _____
 Apply _____
- Step 3: _____ the _____ (Ps 119:133; Ja 1:22-25; Mt 7:24-27; Ph 4:9; Cl 3:16). Applying the word of God to one's life brings freedom and joy.

There is great value in studying the word of God (Ps 119:11). Bible study is a way to know God and build a relationship with him. It is way to find purpose, guidance, and direction for life. It is a way to find wisdom and understanding. It is a way to transformation and new life. BIBLE STUDY IS A WAY OF LIFE for the believer.
