BECOMING LIKE CHRIST:

01 - Be Fruitful

Text: John 15:1-8: Various

Date: 09-02-2018

Jesus wants to produce fruit in us. This fruit will draw people to Jesus. In John 15:1-8 Jesus gives us the key to bearing much fruit. The secret is to remain or abide in Him. Our relationship with Jesus is more about being than doing or believing. But abiding in Jesus is more than just being with Jesus... we follow, observe, uphold, obey and accept Jesus' word no matter what the given situation or conditions. The more we abide with Jesus the more we become like Him. Today we will look at some important facts from Jesus about becoming like Christ and producing fruit.

1. It is a _____ that we bear fruit (vs 8; Ro 7:4; Ga 5:22-25; Mt 7:15-23; 21:43; 12:33; Lk 6:43-44; 13:6-9; Mk 11:13-14). "Bear fruit" is said 8 times in John 15. It indicates sustained productivity... continuous bearing of fruit. The unfruitful branch is totally worthless.
2. We must be _____ to _____ fruit (vs 2; He 12:4-12). Every disciple will undergo discipline. This method of pruning followers may seem severe or even cruel at times. But this discipline is necessary so that we will be able to bear more fruit. Pruning is necessary for us to bear fruit.
3. _____ is _____ to bear fruit (vs 4, 7; Ja 4:2-3; 2 Co 12:7-10; Mt 26:39). This word "menó" (men'-o) which is translated "Abide" or "Remain" is very important. John uses it over 60 times to indicate our relationship with God and Jesus! You cannot disconnect from Jesus and just leave him at church. Abiding has the promise of asking and receiving from God those things which a necessary for personal spiritual development and in reaching others with gospel message of Jesus.

We must remain in Christ so that we can bear much fruit! Our Christian walk of faith is about having a relationship with Jesus. The more we abide in Jesus the more we become like him and bear much fruit!

The tone is totally different for those who don't abide in Jesus. They will be cut off, taken away, thrown out, wither, gathered for judgement, and burned in the fires of Hell.

The invitation to "abide in Christ" is always open. The first step is to accept him and be baptized. God wants you to have a growing relationship with Jesus Christ today... an abiding relationship which will help you to bear much fruit.
