

SERMON NOTES:

WHERE DO YOU DWELL?

Text: John 14:1-14; Psalm 90:1-2; Various

Big Idea: Jesus invites us to “come and see” where he lives. He lives in God.

Date: 10-10-2021 Beaver Creek Christian Church

Two of John’s disciples asked Jesus where he was dwelling. Jesus invited them to come and see. He invites them to perceive for themselves where he dwells (Jn 1:35-40). After being with him for three years these men perceive that he’s not from around here (Jn 14:1-014). Today we are going to look through spiritual eyes and perceive, like these two disciples, where Jesus dwells. COME AND SEE -

1. Jesus dwells in the Father (Jn 10:30; Jn 14:9-11)

2. There is room for you to dwell in the Father too (Jn 14:2-3; Re 5-6; 21:2-4, 23; 22:5)

3. Jesus is the way to dwell in the Father (Jn 14:4-7; Mi 6:8; Ep 2:8-9; Ro 6:23b)

“Come and See” is an invitation for you too. Come and see for yourself who Jesus is and where he dwells. Eternity starts today for those who accept Jesus as their Savior... You can dwell in God too.
COME AND SEE!
